(54) Title: COMPACT DISK MUSICAL JUKEBOX WITH DIGITAL MUSIC LIBRARY ACCESS

(57) Abstract: A song data downloading system and method of dispensing music are provided for use with a music data server and a musical jukebox 10. A song selection device 28 and a control 38 are provided. The control 38 is operable to receive a user selection of particular song data with the song selection device 28. The user selection is made from compact disk song data or downloaded song data. The compact disk song data is from a compact disk 30 that is in the compact disk storage and retrieval system of the jukebox. The downloaded song data is downloaded from a music data server 12. The control provides the selected song data to the music production system 52 of the jukebox for producing audio from the selected song data. The control 38 discards downloaded song data upon producing audio from the downloaded song data.
